Dimension Showcase

Background

A subsidiary of Arrow Electronics, Inc., Arrow Asia Pac is one of the leading electronic component distributors in the Asia Pacific region. In addition to its regional headquarters in Hong Kong, Arrow Asia Pac operates 33 sales offices, 2 primary distribution centres and 4 local warehouses in11 countries/territories across Asia.

Providing a full range of semiconductors, passive, electromechanical and connectors products from over 60 leading international suppliers, Arrow Asia Pac serves more than 10,000 original equipment and contract manufacturers and commercial customers in Asia Pacific.

As our company anticipates rapid growth in the next couple of years and we will have a great demand of work force, so Dimension is a right tool for us to process large numbers of applications. Moreover, as HR staff from different regions will use the system, the user-friendly format of Dimension can satisfy our needs. We hope Dimension can continuously develop more new features and enhancements in the future.
