Why advertise with JobsDB.com?

- Your advertisement automatically enjoys the benefit of exposure within the largest online Recruitment Network in the Asia Pacific Region.
- Through one point of contact you have the convenience of being able to obtain candidates from multiple countries across the region. One currency; one commercial culture and only one line of communication.
- We provide four levels of service with the objective of making it easy for our clients to promote and fulfil their Recruitment needs across the region;

◆ Job Posting Service

You simply email your advertisement text to us along with an email address (or URL link) for the Candidates responses and we will post it into the appropriate country for thirty days; you can also have your advertisement customised for no extra charge by simply sending us your logo and a link to your website.

Efficient and convenient; you do not need to learn our software, we do it all for you. Please refer to our multiple job posting packages below for quantity discounts commencing from $285 for a single advertisement.

For $40 we will also repost the advertisement to give you the benefit of the job alert process a second time.

◆ Access To Resumé Database Without Advertising

Access Asia Pacific's largest online recruitment network by utilizing our Resumé Database service. This service allows you to search and view an unlimited number of brief resumés and request your selected candidates to reply to you with their complete resumé and contact details.

Our system is setup to only deduct a credit from your account upon receipt of a full resumé response from the candidate. This ensures that you are only paying for currently active jobseekers.

JobsDB.com also provides complimentary training in our Candidate Management software to ensure you optimise the Candidate acquisition potential the network has to offer.

Resumés per Month	Price*
3	$180
5	$250
10	$450
20	$800
20+	Negotiated

◆ Shortlist2u Service

Designed to aid with time management and cost effectiveness, we have developed the SHORTLIST2U Service which allows for us preparing and placing your advertising, receiving all candidate applications on your behalf; sorting them according to our candidate matching software; responding to inappropriate candidates and providing a list of closest fit candidates for your selection process.

We provide an efficient and cost effective alternative to the traditional recruitment process charged on a per role basis plus any agreed advertising costs. To receive your free shortlist demonstration or to enquire about our pricing please contact us on 02 9896 6725.
